PUBLIC FORUM:

- o No public comment

Council President Lindsey Henson stated an executive session was held to do performance review for Street Supervisor Tony Pike. All councilors present agree Mr. Pike is doing a great job and are satisfied with his performance so far. Clerk-Treasurer Erica Lyden-Giger asked for November 5, 2025 Executive Session Memorandum be approved. She also said Elena Hammond has worked on the CCMG for the past few years and has recently received her first certification for Certified Municipal Official and would like to offer her a $1.00 raise retroactive back to when she received her certification. Discussion was held about needing to update the certain portions of the employee handbook and having a more clear clothing allowance policy.

- Council President Henson motioned to approve pay raise for Tony Pike from $45,000 per year to $47,500 retroactive back to October 27, 2025 Councilor Bourne seconded. Motion carried.
- Councilor Bourne motioned to approve November 5, 2025 Executive Session Memorandum. Councilor Harrison seconded. Motion carried.
- Council President Henson motioned to approve $1.00 pay raise for Elena Hammond effective back to when she received her certification. Councilor Bourne seconded. Motion carried.

With no further business before the Prince's Lakes Town Council, Council President Henson adjourned the meeting at 5:17 pm

Respectfully submitted,

Erica Lyden-Giger, IAMCA
